NOTES OF INTEREST

Miller Lite/ACU-I Pool Tournament Results: The Lima Campus Pool Tournament was completed on Wednesday afternoon. The winner of the Men's division was RANDY STINEBUCK with STAN MACDONALD as second place. The women's division was a close contest between CARA NORRIS and CAROL THOMAS. CARA NORRIS won the tournament after two close matches. The winners received Miller Lite mirrors and second place received a T-shirt compliments of Acme Beverage Co.

Four students are eligible to go to the regional tournament to be held February 3 & 4 at Kent State University. Those eligible are: Randy Stinebuck, Brad Lange, Darryl Gossard and Cara Norris. Good Luck to all four! Details about playing times and directions to Kent State will be available in GA 015.

Basketball Teams: The men's team lost Saturday to Ohio University-Zanesville after beating Ohio State University-Newark on Friday night. The Tuesday game at Miami University-Hamilton resulted in a 90-67 win for the Barons. The present record is 11-6 overall and 4-3 in the conference.

The women's team won on Saturday against Ohio University-Zanesville after losing to Ohio State-Newark on Friday evening.

The next games are at home on Wednesday. The women play Wright State-Celina at 5:00pm and the men play Concordia Theological Seminary at 7:00pm.

Intramurals: Table Tennis competition begins on Monday, check the Athletic office for times.

Watch for details on the Winter Run. Who knows, it may be a Valentine's Day Run. See John Stroia for details.

Student Senate: The Student Senate has just recently elected officers, they are as follows:

Kurt Kaufman (OSU) President
Bruce Williams (LTC) Vice President
Tammy Williams (LTC) Secretary
Patty Lewis (LTC) Treasurer

The Senate is currently planning for a book exchange/co-op for the Spring quarter. This would be a chance to sell your books to another student before trying to sell them to a bookstore. Other projects include: Distinguished Teaching Award (who the students feel are great teachers) and M*A*S*H Bash dance on February 24.

Noon Entertainment Series: Dave & Kay Gordon, a folk duo from Dayton, Ohio will entertain as part of the Noon Series on Thursday, Feb. 2. They perform British and American folk songs as well as original works. They will feature such instruments as: dulcimer, mandolin, banjo, autoharp and recorder. Don't miss this pair - Cook Lobby 12-1 - Thursday.

Campus Connection: Watch for the next issue of the Campus Connection, to be delivered on Monday, Jan. 30. The paper will feature "The Mooners" (comic strip), campus information, Dean's list, editorial, movie review, and more. Don't miss the coupon from Wendy's, and the ads from The Sun Didit, Bill's Painting and Drywall, The Ohio Theatre (February calendar), and Louie's Night Club.

Summer Internships: WASHINGTON, D.C.---College students have until Friday, March 9, to apply for summer internships in the Washington office of Fourth District Congressman Michael G. Oxley (R-Findlay).

Two paid and two volunteer internships will be available in Oxley's Washington office summer. The selection process will be completed by April 1.

Prospective interns must have completed at least their first year in college by the time they would begin their internships this summer.

Applications are available by writing to Congressman Mike Oxley, 1108 Longworth House Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20515.
